Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

Attache Class 3-74 will graduate on Friday, 9 August 1974 at 1000 hours. Ceremonies will be held at the Defense Intelligence School and approximately 21 students and their wives will participate.

We are extremely pleased that you have agreed to present the graduation address for it has been proven over the years that your talk has been not only informative and interesting, but has also provided positive motivation to each outgoing attache-husband and wife team.

We are enclosing a photograph of the class as well as a roster of those who will be in attendance. For any additional details on the class profile or any other matter, please feel free to contact your Agency representative here at the School, [redacted] or Lieutenant Colonel John Payne, Jr., USAF (433-2986 or 2987).

Sincerely,

W. J. Furnas

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

NOTES FROM GRADUATION ADDRESS BY MAJOR GEN
SAM WILSON TO ATTACHES 5 April 1974

10:00

- 1 - Invocation by Chaplain - 1 1/2 minutes
- 2 - Introduction by Commandant DIS (Captain Wendell Furnas, USN) - 1 1/2 minutes

10:05

- 3 - Remarks by Gen. Wilson - "4th time before class -
What else is there to say? -

Will address himself to Attache Priorities"

TEXT

PRIORITIES:

TWO PHASES

- 1 - Work for Ambassador
- 2 - Attache, Mil. observer mil. reporter, and evaluates and comments on facts collected.

VARIABLES

- 1 - Modus operandi and style of Attache
- 2 - Station to Station (Place to Place)
- 3 - Time to Time

EXAMPLES : (Time)

- * Typical = 50% to 70% collector
- Low = 5% Collector
- Iran + 75% "Security Assistance"

- * Depends on what is going on at time

(BACK TO) TOP PRIORITIES

(the totals of everything Attache does as Uniformed Representative of USA at Posts Overseas) [ie. Military Diplomat]

TWO CHARACTERISTICS

(Which separate Attache from the average man in uniform "just passing through")

- 1 - Sensitivity - Intercultural appreciations while serving abroad, by Attaches
- 2 - Salesmanship- Explanation of who you are and what you are doing there as a uniformed American

(BACK TO) SENSITIVITY

- Americans outgoing, positive, come on strong and loud (even in foreign languages)
- Attache is himself but should also be quiet, and good listener, flexible and good learner.
- (Relates) 3 experiences on this point from service in Vietnam and elsewhere (plus little vignette about film he made in Hollywood)

(BACK TO) SALESMANSHIP

- Story about experiences at Ft. Bragg and quizzing advisors on whether they had copy of US Constitution, Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights (or could talk about these at length)

- Articulation in abstract about who Attache is and what he stands for.
- (Relates) a detailed story about service in Burma (WWII) and the proper motivation by word and example to indigenous Burmese who helped the Allied cause. Reference directly to young lad who as Aide-de-Camp, lead Scout and Consultant helped "Lt. Wilson" to accomplish the mission and in the end, paid with his life. Dramatic reference to those past events in time as a precept to keep in mind as the way to look at things today.

10:35
